SKINNER FAMILY

DOROTHY SKINNER MARTZ
7860 FORRESTAL RD.
SAN DIEGO, CA 92120

237 Raven Rd.
Tijeras, NM 87059

Underscored names represent the direct lineage of James Edward Skinner. They are three brothers who came to Virginia from England, as told to J. E. Skinner about 1897 by a very old third cousin, Jack Holland, of Calloway County, Kentucky, whose mother was a Skinner.

Emanuel Skinner, born 1738; Cordie Skinner, and Samson Skinner.
Emanuel was the first pastor of Red River Baptist Church near Springfield, Tennessee, from 1802-1816. This church, according to court records at Springfield, is now located at Adams, Tennessee.
He was married to Elizabeth (?) Barcheba, and they had two sons -
Jesse, born June 26, 1773; died ?
Josiah, born July 1, 1771; died June 24, 1842.

Doris' notes: "Sometime before 1850, they had moved to Hempstead, Arkansas. He with a brother Smith Kent had come to Arkansas from Alabama and returned on horseback to settle an estate. Trip took 3 months."

As our readers can see, there are many new facts contributed by Mr. KENT, for which we are grateful. We were able to supply some new information to him in return.

In File #138 "Southern Skinners from Cynthia Rummel" I find much of Doris' material from Cynthia came from a Iris Dee KENT-ECKHARDT: "...I got the information that her father, Jackson Henry Kent was the son of John Kent, who was the son of John Kent, who was born "in Virginia" about 1811-12 and who had married in Alabama after 1830, Judith Skinner, called "Judy" and Julia"..."

What we ask of Phillip is to send proof of lineage of Theophilus(3) to Samuel (2) and William (1) - it's something that is missing in the files I have searched to date. We will advise our readers of this documentation in Volume Three.

On behalf of all our readers, I thank Mr. KENT for his contribution to our newsletter.

Dear Mrs. Edwards:

I saw your query in the November 5, 1988 Family puzzlers. I am sending you all that I have collected and hope that you may find some new information.

I am also enclosing my FGS on my 3ggg who was also in the same general area. I truly believe that eventually these will all connect for they continually lived in the same areas....moving at the same time, locale, etc. Some of these were William of Nansemond Co, Va, Chowan Co, NC,; Theophilus, son of Samuel and grandson of William; my Emanuel, Josiah, Jesse, Cortland, etc.

I began this research for my daughter who lives in Virginia. She wanted to know if we have any Civil War soldiers in the family. If so, her sons (my grandsons) would be eliglibe for college scholarships when the get older. These are from the Sons of the Confederacy. Well, after two years and many hours of research and many, many letters, I found three. The requirement is for a direct ancestor....our Josiah W. That led me on to find Emanuel..... and there I am stuck. I have read reports and rumors that 3 boys came from England: Emanuel, Cordie and Samuel....but now where they came from or when.

I have fived large binders full of all sorts of Skinners....I simply started saving everything I found..(otherwise I kept running across the same items.) Making FGS was the easiest and I must have over 200 of these. I KNOW that one of these days I'll make connections. I have for several other people!

We are fortunate to have a wonderful Mormon Library right here in San Diego and I can truthfully say that I have every Skinner listed in that library as of November, 1988. I am now sending for more films from Salt Lake City as they become available.

If I can be of any further help (I hope I have been of some) please let me know.

Sincerely,

Dorothy

3. Robert Zimmerman SKINNER, born about 1820, died in Arkansas, married (1) Louisa DuBOSE, daughter of Elias DuBOSE, Darlington County, South Carolina. She died after 1851 (by a court record) and in 1858, another Darlington County Court record shows Mary MIMS, daughter of Capt. George and Penelope MIMS as the wife of R. Zimmerman SKINNER.

   Children by the first wife were:
   1) Martha, married Henry BEASLEY
   2) Elizabeth, married Sidney GALLOWAY

   There were no children of the second marriage. About 1865 Robert Zimmerman SKINNER and wife, Mary A. MIMS, born Oct. 18, 1825 - died Feb. 23, 1897 (from her tombstone at Newman Swamp Methodist Cemetery, Darlington County, South Carolina) migrated to Arkansas. After Zimmerman SKINNER'S death at Sylvania, Arkansas, a cousin of Mary MIMS SKINNER went to Arkansas and brought her back to South Carolina.

Notes: Contemporary records from Mr. H. G. RUDISILL, Florence, South Carolina, show R. Zimmerman SKINNER a Trustee of the Cypress Meeting House (Methodist) in March of 1855.

Darlington District, South Carolina:
Post Office called "Wood Shop" with Franklin SKINNER as its first postmaster Sept. 1854. This must have been close to or very near Franklin's plantation near Cypress X Roads, Darlington County, South Carolina.

3. Benjamin Franklin SKINNER was born 1823 (Darlington County census), died April 9, 1865, a Civil War prisoner, at Elmira, New York. (War Dept. record). He married Margaret Adeline DuBOSE, born March 24, 1824, died June 9, 1880 (from her tombstone at Cato, Arkansas.) She was the daughter of Elias B. and Pheriby BELK DuBOSE.

In 1869 there was a general migration of Darlington County citizens to Arkansas, among whom were three sons of Benjamin Franklin and Adeline DuBOSE SKINNER, Wiley, Nicholas, and Charles SKINNER.

In 1879 Wiley SKINNER returned to South Carolina from Pulaski County, Arkansas and helped his mother in settling her estate in order to take her and his youngest brother, Ashby F. SKINNER, a minor, back to Arkansas to live with him. Susan, wife of Larry CROSWELL, and Jeffry SKINNER had recently died of typhoid fever. Henry B. SKINNER and William Murray SKINNER remained in South Carolina.

In settling the estate the signatures on the deed of property to Manuel MARCO, Deed Book E 2, page 433, Darlington County Courthouse, South Carolina, in 1879 show the heirs of Benjamin Franklin SKINNER as:

Adeline SKINNER
Wiley SKINNER
Nicholas E. SKINNER) Wiley SKINNER given Power of Attorney to Charles S. SKINNER) sign for them from Pulaski, Arkansas.
Henry B. SKINNER
William M. (Murray) SKINNER
Ashby F. SKINNER Wiley SKINNER to act for him as he was a minor, and signed as his guardian.
William L. Croswell, husband of Susan E. SKINNER CROSWELL.

In Arkansas, Nicholas E. SKINNER and Ashby F. SKINNER studied for the ministry and served as Methodist Preachers and Presiding Elders in the State of Arkansas.

Comments:

Ones who have studied the original will of Jacob PARROTT in Darlington County, filed January 1821, are convinced that the S in the old-fashioned writing of "Seany" is undoubtedly an "L". Facts to substantiate this are:

3. Charlotte Susan SKINNER, daughter of Laney, married Hubbard DuBOSE. She named her oldest daughter Laney P. DuBOSE, evidently for her grandmother, Laney PARROTT SKINNER. This Laney P. is recorded in the Hubbard DuBOSE FAMILY BIBLE.

(These names, we are told, "telescope" generations.)

Not many of the James SKINNER descendants remained in South Carolina. After the death of his first wife, Laney PARROTT SKINNER, James migrated to Alabama with his second wife and younger children. His oldest daughter, Charlotte, married Hubbard DuBOSE and reared a family in Darlington County. His oldest son, R. Zimmerman SKINNER, migrated to Arkansas.
His second son, Benjamin Franklin SKINNER, died in the Civil War and his widow, Adeline DuBOSE SKINNER and all but two of their sons migrated to Arkansas.

The Plat of James SKINNER'S land recorded in 1833 in Darlington County Courthouse shows his land to be 1,282 acres on upper (or known as Little) Lynches Creek. When he moved to Alabama about 1840-42, his older children, Charlotte, Zimmerman, and Franklin, migrated farther down Lynches River to the Cypress section of Darlington County. Here they married into the Andrew and Peter DuBOSE (both of Revolutionary fame) families.

James, Jr., tenth child of James and Laney PARROTT SKINNER, married Elizabeth NEWTON on 13 Sept 1860 in Henry County, Alabama.

Their Child:

Ida Viola, married Wade Hampton MAYO on 2 July 1891 in Holmes County, Florida. They had a son.

Their son:

Lorezo, married Elizabeth NEWTON

Elizabeth NEWTON was born about 1847-1848 probably in Alabama. Believed to be the daughter of Constantine NEWTON and Elizabeth of Dale County, (later Henry County) Alabama.

Constantine NEWTON, Sr., born about 1785 (age 65 in 1850) in South Carolina. He married Elizabeth sometime prior to 1820-1825 as he had a son age 15-20 on the 1840 Dale County census. Constantine in this part of Alabama as early as 1823 when his name appears on Voters' List for Peace Officers (Dale County 1840 and Dale Co. 1850). Believe Elizabeth NEWTON SKINNER to be his youngest child. She was 4 on 1850 census - name hard to decifer -- like Axey Jane. On the marriage certificate is the note, "I gave permission for my daughter, Julianne E. J. NEWTON to marry James SKINNER." Signed by Eliza NEWTON. James and Elizabeth on the 1880 Escombia County, Florida. Elizabeth is age 32 (b. 1848) which agrees with age of Axey Jane on 1860 census. (1860 taken 1 September 1860)

Family of Louisa PARROTT and John KILLEN
(Contributed by Mrs. A. C. TURNER, 2817 North Story Road, Irving, Texas 75060)

Louisa PARROTT, daughter of Jacob PARROTT and wife, Penelope House PARROTT, who married John KILLEN Feb. 28, 1822in Darlington County, South Carolina. John KILLEN was a first generation American as his father, William, was born in Dublin, Ireland in 1750. William married Jane MILLER of Baltimore, Maryland in 1780 during the Revolutionary War in which William KILLEN served.

John was raised in Cumberland County, North Carolina and married (1) a Jane JOLLY who died in childbirth with twins who also died.

Following his father's death in 1820, John KILLEN, having received his inheritance, moved to Darlington County, South Carolina, where an older brother, Robert, had lived for some time. According to Mrs. TURNER, John had witnessed a deed for Robert in 1813 (does not state whether in Cumberland County, North Carolina or in Darlington County, South Carolina). Nevertheless, Robert raised his family in Darlington and was a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. TURNER has the family record sheet from John KILLEN'S old Bible. Also she stated deeds in Darlington show John KILLEN bought fifteen hundred acres of land "neighboring" the PARROTTS.

John KILLEN was a widower and thirty-four years of age when he married Louisa PARROTT, youngest daughter and child of Jacob PARROTT and wife, Penelope. Louisa was born ca 1794 or possibly later. Birth date not known. She was unmarried at the time her father died in 1821. Will filed Feb 4, 1821.

The children of John and Louisa PARROTT KILLEN:

1. Samuel Doddridge, born Feb 16, 1823.
2. Martha Emily, born Oct 12, 1824, died 1832.
3. John Sidney, born Feb 5, 1826.
4. Theodore Newton, born Nov 11, 1827.
5. James Madison, born Dec 28, 1829.
6. Julia Charlotte, born May 9, 1832, died 1838.

Louisa PARROTT KILLEN died either in childbirth with her sixth child, or shortly afterward. Following her death, John KILLEN sold his property in Darlington and moved with his five living children to Perry, Georgia, where a younger KILLEN brother had settled in the early 1820's; and where his mother, Jane Miller KILLEN and a sister were also living. John then lost his mother in 1832. John remarried in 1835.

John's daughter, Julia Charlotte, died in 1838 in Georgia, leaving John with four sons by Louisa PARROTT. The youngest, James Madison KILLEN was the grandfather of Mrs. TURNER.

All four of the KILLEN boys fought in the Civil War.

The KILLENS are treated in the histories of Houston County (Perry), Georgia.

Mrs. TURNER has the complete lines of the four sons of Louisa PARROTT KILLEN and at one time Mrs. TURNER stated she is doing a KILLEN book -- including these lines, plus the lines of his children by his third marriage.

Mrs. TURNER'S grandfather, James Madison KILLEN, and older brother, John Sidney, moved to N. La. by wagon train, then to Central Texas following the Civil War. John Sidney KILLEN named his oldest daughter, Louisa PARROTT. James Madison named a daughter, Louisa, who died in infancy.

Mrs. TURNER is the oldest child of James Madison's youngest daughter, and he wanted to name her Louisa PARROTT, but the other grandfather also wanted in on the naming and she was named PARROTT, but called Polly. She was born in West Texas, in Fisher County, near Rotan.

Mrs. TURNER has been to Ireland researching KILLENS and also has been to Darlington to visit family cemeteries.

Tradition in the family states that Benjamin was an overseer for Andrew Jackson. The Hermitage Association has no information regarding this fact but Benjamin did loan money to Samuel Donelson who was probably a relative of Rachel Donelson Jackson in 1796. Family moved north, getting rid of their few slaves along the way. Family was in Illinois before it became a state. Maiden name of wife is unknown. They supposedly married in South Carolina. Her date of birth is listed as anywhere from 1780-1790. Thus unlikely they married before arriving in Tennessee. Children: Samuel, John D. and Nancy who married my ancestor, William Batson. Three other daughters: Clarissa and two whose names I do not know.

Dear Pat,

I had a letter from Pearl Covington of Ala. a few days ago. She had written me before and I answered her letter but I'm not sure she got it. Anyway, she sent me a copy of the original will of Benjamin Skinner, Sr. As far as it goes it isn't confusing, except for the Eleanor he mentioned. I simply don't know if he had a son named Nathan or not.

I am sending you copies of some things, deeds, etc. which I have had for some time. The chronological sketches is something I did two or three years ago with information available to me at the time. I took facts, deeds, dates, names, etc. and tried to make some sense of it all. It was the only way I could see to help me keep these Skinner men straight in my own mind. I'm sure there are numerous misconceptions and errors in it. I tried to be as accurate as I could but when a deed or event refers to a man named Benjamin or John or whatever it could have been about a separate man by that name who was in the same place. So read it and take it all with a grain of salt and try to disprove it. I'd welcome it.

My direct line is John. We know his wife was Mary but don't know her maiden name. Their son, Axion Skinner, wa born in 1819 in Ky. He married Minerva Johnson. I've been working with a man in Ky. on the Johnsons for a long time. He has heard a story many times that three Skinner men went to Ky from SC with two sisters who married Skinners. Minerva's father was John Johnson and John's father was James Johnson of NC. That is why you'll see that I have underlined the name James Johnson. You had sent me some assorted Skinner material from various places. The one that leapt out at me was an abstract from the Early Deeds of Wayne Co., NC by Watson, in which a James Johnson witnessed a deed in 1783 in Wayne Co.

I haven't followed the Alabama Skinners very much at all. However, you might want to write to Howard Skinner, 418 Lozier Lane, Medford, Oregon 97501. He has met many Skinners and even attended Skinner reunions in Ala and Texas and he might be able to put you in touch with someone who might know who your Margaret's parents were. I can't remember what I sent you before. Do you have the 1830 Darlington Co., SC census? If not, let me know and I'll send you the Skinner names I abstracted. Do you know if your Margaret's family was still there in 1830?

I have several other letters to get out so I'll quit here. I have orderedtwo films of deeds from Darlington Co. from 1806-1816. The woman who looked at them in 1959 abstracted only Skinner deeds, I think. I'll be picking up anything I can find which relates to Old Benjamin or any of his children, including the Mozingos and Whiddons, Keas, etc. They haven't yet come in but if I find something extrememly interesting which was not previously found I'll let you know.

Darlington Co. was in Cheraw District, together with Marlboro and Chesterfield cos., during the Revolution. Before 1770 the area was part of Craven Co.

The county was mostly Baptist in the Eastern parts - Methodist in the Western parts. Settlers came from N.C. and Va. after the Revolution.

Darlington's earliest settlers were Baptists from Delaware who settled along the Pee Dee River. Western sections were settled later, mostly by Methodists from N.C. and Va. from the end of the Revolution to 1800-1810.

"The Skinners of Darlington Co., S.C. descend from Benj. Skinner, so I found it, who arrived here around 1785-90 from Lenoir Co., N.C. where he lived during the revolution.

There was, during the mid-18th century, a family of Skinners in or near Georgetown, S.C., but I have never seen anything to indicate that there was any close connection with Benjamin of Darlington."

There is no record of Benjamin Skinner in S.C. Revolution Archives at Columbia.

There is no absolute proof that the above dates and incidents apply to the same man. There were several Jesse Skinner's. One Jesse was a son of Benjamin Skinner, Jr., born ca 1800, who went to Alabama ca 1834. Lemuel had a son, Jesse, but he was not born until ca1830. Jesse Skinner (1774--) had a son, Jesse. Nothing is known of him, yet. However, he may be the one who married Mrs. Wynn.

SKINNER

As the Skinner family has been well written up in N. C. Historical & Genealogical Register, it will be beyond my power to make a tracing of them which will be fuller, or more adequate. So it is my object only to give some data, not to be found in the above named work, prior to their coming to Perq County. Most of these notes were found in Isle of Wight Co Va, from which in my opinion Richard Skinner emigrated to N. C. A Richard Skinner appears in York Co, at an early date, as "servant of Capt Thomas Thorpe" but there is nothing to prove that he was the same in Isle of Wight, although he may have been identical. Being a "servant" in this case, does not imply an act of servitude, as we are in the habit of applying it. These so called "servants" were often times of a higher station in life than their masters, and were either political prisoners, sent to the Colony for some minor offense against the government, or were merely paying for a passage to this country, by service, for some stated period. And as Thomas Thorpe is mentioned as "Captain" the latter would seem to be the most plausible conclusion, in the case of Richard Skinner of York Co.

Arthur Skinner, was "foreman" of the jury, in Isle of Wight Co Va, April 14, 1664. William Skinner of Bristoll, Eng, Merchant, appears on the Isle of Wight records, as "Att' for Mary Markes of Barbados, Widow; and appointed Robert Ked of Isle of Wight his Att' to Recover from Francis England of Blackwater 5500 lbs of Tob, removed by order of Attorney, 1668. Test' Robert Harris, James Edwards. John Norsworthy of Isle of Wight Co, leased for 14 years, unto Henry Skynner 160a of land in said Co, for the yearly rent of 400 lbs of Tob. Dec 23, 1664. Test' George Norsworthy, Bryan Knowles.

Mary Skinner of "Runnison" Isle of Wight Co widow: sold to George Cripps of Blackwater, for 6000 lbs of Tob, "a dividend of land" on said River 15000a. Test' Edward Poynter, Thos Smyth, Daniel Palmer. June 7, 1680. She was married to John Collins of Upper pish of Isle of Wight Co, before Sept 7, 1680.

Richard Skinner made a deed in Isle of Wight July 11, 1676, and gave "all my lands to my wife and two daughters." Unfortunately they are not named. He also mentions his gr-son Skinner Rawlings. Elizabeth (d of said Richard) m Rober Rawlings, of Surry Co Va, who was a mariner, and owned a "Shipp, which was lying att Warrick squick Bay" July 8, 1677. John Dunford gave bond to pay to Lt Richard Skinner, & James Griffin, 30000 lbs of Tob, July 26, 1674, from Estate of Robert Warren dec'd, of Lawnes Creek. Wit' Wm Edwards, Rog'r Deeke. Roger Rawlings appointed his "father-in-law" Richd. Skinner Att'. Jan 13, 1675.

Mary Skinner made deposition in Surry Co, July 26, 1675, that William Hill, in his will "gave all his property to Wm Edwards."

HISTORY OF PERQUIMANS COUNTY

The Parish Reg of St Peters Church New Kent Co gives the ages of two of the children of Richard Skinner as follows: Rich'd, son of Rich'd Skinner, was bapt Feby 15, 1690—2 Margaret (d of Richard, & Mary) born Aug 6, 1699.

He was in Perq Co, N. C. 1701, and was granted 400a in Perq precinct, "at the punch bowles" adj Nathan Newby, along Bear Swamp. Dec 29, 1718.

As Mary Skinner was a widow in Isle of Wight Co & m 2d John Collins 1680, we are led to believe the Richard who came to N. C. must have been a son of the Richard, who had dau married to Roger Rawlings. He seems a better bet for our emigrant, and the records show that Richard of Isle of Wight was dead 1680. Richard (1) in Perq, in a deed to his dau Margaret Walston (Walton) makes plain he had a dau by that name, & her age is given in St Peters Reg He certainly had a son Richard (2) who m Sarah Overman, issue: 1 James, b 5, 10mo 1715—2 Samuel, & Richard (twins) b 15, 11mo 1717—Evane, b 15, 1mo 1719—4 Joseph, b 11, 8mo 1722—5 Joshua, b 25, 5mo 1724—6 Jonathan, b 13, 7mo 1726—7 William, b 25, 12mo 1728—8 John, b 21, 11mo 1730/1. Joseph (s of Richard) died 15, 9mo 1739. (Quaker Reg.)

Major F. S. Skinner of Providence, R. I., is at work on a book, lining up this old family, which he intends to publish at a future date.

Richard Skinner had land grants in Perq, 400a as above stated, and 356a on Bear Swamp, Nov 27, 1727. William Skinner was granted 600a, adj Ephrim Hunter, Mar 11, 1740. Evane Skinner granted 381a in Bear Swamp, Sept 7, 1761, & 130a, Mar 5, 1780, same location.

EDITORS COMMENTS

First of all, THANK YOU for your response to the newsletter! So many of you took the time to write saying how much you enjoyed Volume One. A big thank you as well for the donations made towards expenses.

As you know by now, there is no charge for research for KINSMEN members. Only charges made are for photocopies (I do not own a copier). Members that have made contact, either by query or an article, will have research done for them. Some of you already have received replies since the publication of Volume One; others are still being researched and I will get back to you as soon as possible.

It was strange to go through the additional materials forwarded by Gord WAHL (see Vol 1 #4, p.37) and find most of it dealt with questions that were being asked by our present members! More on that later.

The queries are starting to come in again and I do hope that all our members will continue to place their queries; not only for SKINNER, but those appearing on their pedigree charts. As you will see in this issue, help does come from even those that are not members; like Sonia van Heerden, Angela Files and Nancy Vernon-Browne -- THANK YOU.

Remember to continue to send in your articles. We've had a terrific response so far from our readers for material for the coming year. As space permits, all will be published.

Always remember to keep the members informed of your progress, like Pat LUNDY has done this issue. Share your clues, so that we can continue to help each other.

More On Benjamin (7), Mormon from Mt. Pleasant

In Vol 1 #4 1988, page 40 re "Benjamin SKINNER ( ) of Mount Pleasant, Ontario", we have identified him as Benjamin (7)! I was thrilled to receive such a response from members of Brant County Branch of O.G.S. Particularly from Angela FILES and Nancy VERNON-BROWNE. These ladies went out of their way to send information to your editor. [Just another example of how the Kinsmen gets around]

It turns out that this particular Benjamin SKINNER is: Benjamin (7) of Jeptha (6) Benjamin (5) of Stamford. From all my reading, Doris was never aware of the Mormon connection to the family of Benjamin (7). It likely would have made her research that much easier. Doris received quite a bit of help with these lines from a) Clyde Jewett SKINNER (10), b) Marvel SKINNER-BEARG (10). Various files in the collection outline their works.

Clyde worked on a small newsletter called: "Writing the History of the Skinner Family", based out of Boulder, Colorado. In a letter dated 10 April 1952, addressed to "Albert and Ellen", he described their grandfather (7):

"...Benjamin SKINNER (5) [numbers as assigned by your editor for clarification] who lived during the time of the Revolution War. Some of his brothers fought in the Revolution for the cause, and some took the side of the King. Benjamin was one of these, as well as his brother Timothy (5) and Haggai (5). When the war was over, they had to get out, for all the Colonies passed laws confiscating all the property of the Tories and banishing them from the country. Wasn't that a jolt! Well, Benjamin and his two brothers went over into Ontario, just north of Niagara Falls and the Canadian government granted each Tory or Loyalist 500*acres of land. Benjamin had ten children but we have been able only to locate a part of them. One of them was Jeptha (6), the 5th generation. He settled in Ontario. I called him Benjamin (5) of Stamford.

Jeptha SKINNER (6) settled on a homestead near Copetown, Ontario and hewed a home out of the wilderness and Cora and I stood at his grave there two years ago when we visited the old homestead. His oldest boy, the first one, was named Benjamin (7), after his father, and he became your grandfather. He [Jeptha] is the one mentioned in your old bible and of whom you have a picture of. At the time of the 1790 Census he was living in Ulster County, New York, but evidently he moved to about where Buffalo is now and that is where Benjamin (7) was born. I mean Jeptha (6) was living in Ulster County, New York. Next we find Jeptha moving to Ontario in August 1794, where he homesteaded.

Well, his son Benjamin (7) of Dundas, whom we'll lable so, lived at Mt. Pleasant, near Brantford, Canada,and this is where your father and all of his children were born. I have found from land records that he only had 29 acres of land and I presume that it was only enough for a home while he devoted most of his time to some other pursuit. I think that he preached some for I have found an early day preacher by the name of B. SKINNER had a regular church. But after the family had started he moved back to Wentworth County where Dundas is located and lived the rest of his life there. His wife, I have found, was Emily PERRIN and you were right when you thought you were sure that the name was PERRIN.

I found thru a cross reference one day that the PERIN Family History had been written up and sure enough when I investigated it there was an Emily PERRIN who married a Benjamin SKINNER and that they had lived at Mt. Pleasant, Ontario, Canada..."

At the end of his letter, Clyde indicates that the Albert he has addressed is: Albert SKINNER (9) of William Andrew (8), Benjamin (7) Jeptha (6) Benjamin (5) Joseph (4) Ebenezer (3) Thomas (2) (1).

Doris had this to say: "Jeptha (6) was b. 20 June 1757 in New York or in Pennsylvania. He died 20 March 1852, aged almost 95 years and is buried near Copetown, Beverly Township, Wentworth Co., on the family farm.

It is now known whether Jeptha was married before his marriage to Mary GRIFFETH, b, about 1774 (about 16 yrs at time of marriage),daughter of Lazarus & Hannah GRIFFETH. He parents had left the United States, or the Colonies as they were then called, at the time of the Revolutionary War and had received Crown Grants of land for their loyality, as did Jeptha SKINNER, his father Benjamin, and other relatives. Mary (GRIFFETH) SKINNER is said to have died young (when Jeptha Jr., was four years old) about 32 years old. Lazarus GRIFFETH Sr., was b. March 1750 and is said to have come from Jersey City, N.J. about 1796 to Beverly Township."

It is my plan to feature more on this family. The new information kindly forwarded from members of Brant County, O.G.S. still have to be reviewed and posted. I thank them for their efforts in assisting the KINSMEN. It's just an example of what is once unknown, becomes part of an already established family history -- that vital missing link. I was planning to use some of Clyde's material this year, but I never would have known that he was "Benjamin - the Mormon of Mt. Pleasant"!

Question: Natalie Fernald published "The Skinner Kinsmen: Descendants of Robert Skinner". From Doris' collection I have pages 1 to 8 -- how many pages where there? When was it published? If anyone has more pages - can you photocopy and forward to me. Thanks, editor.

This is for Robert (1) b. in England, settled in Calvert County, Maryland about 1650; marr #1 ??, #2 ca 1672-76 to Anna Storer.

Unknown Skinner of Stamford 1744-1830

"Dr. SKINNER, Stamford, 16 Feb 1830, aged 86 yrs." appears in Janet Carnochan's, "Early Churches in Niagara Peninsula", Ontario Historical Society Papers and Records, Vol 8 (Toronto, 1907) p. 168. According to the forward by Ms. Carnochan (p.149) "...Those relating to the Chippawa were rescued by Colonel Cruikshank from an old building where old account books were found, some of them almost undecipherable from the effects of rain and damp, some mildewed and decayed, and now recopied by kind permission from that gentleman's first copy..." Question to our readers: Who is this SKINNER? Is he a doctor? Should it possibly read "Mr."? The present records available for Holy Trinity (Anglican) in Chippawa to researchers for the burials do not start until 1864. Your editor welcomes all suggestions to this SKINNER.

Another Descendant of Timothy (5)

Our newest Kinsmen, Eleanor Grace TAYLOR, of Bracebridge, Ontario, reports that thanks to the publication by Doris WAHL offered in our last newsletter (Vol 1 #4, Nov 1988), The Skinner Kinsmen: The Descendants of Joseph and Martha (Kinne) Skinner, (Niagara Falls, N.Y., 1958), she was able to prove herself back to Thomas (1) SKINNER of Malden,Mass!

Her genealogy for SKINNER is now back 11 generations: Eleanor Grace SKINNER-TAYLOR (11), Harold (10), Samuel (9), Joseph (8) (7), Timothy (6) (5), Joseph (4), Ebenezer (3), Thomas (2) (1).

Grace writes: "...I would be interested in hearing from anyone who has any further information about these ancestors of mine. I am particularly anxious to establish any data which would enable me to prove these lines and to obtain copies of the same..."

SKINNER: Isaiah, marr. Mary and had three (possibly four) children: Colin, Joseph buried at Don Mills United Church graveyard, Toronto.
SKINNER: Aaron, brother to Isaiah and had a sister Rhoda who married Parshall TERRY. Aaron and Isaiah built the mills which were later managed by Timothy SKINNER, Colin SKINNER and Parshall TERRY (on the Don River).

Together with our latest member, Albert WALSH, who is also interested in Rhoda SKINNER and Parshall TERRY, Grace now joins the search with Sylvia BAGLEY and Amy HOLDSWORTH.

A search was also conducted from the SKINNER COLLECTION and materials were forward to Grace in regards to her queries. Sylvia is busy researching the TERRYs and is getting some good information, which I'm sure she'll advise our readers of shortly. Hopefully we will feature more about the descendants of Timothy (5), as well as information on him, during the coming year.

For those that do have a copy of Doris' book, you may wish to add the following to p.8: Timothy (5) b. Mar. 2, 1737, m. Patience SLAGHT. It is presumed that Patience was the second wife of Timothy (5), daughter of Henry SLACHT. Timothy was married to a Sarah who d. after Sept. 1783 and before 1787. (File #171).

Samuel Gillett/Gillette

The following information was recently sent by your editor to fellow Kinsmen, Pat LUNDY:

This was extracted at the Niagara-on-the-Lake Public Library from the collection of Alan T. HOLDEN, who is researching early militia records for a possible publication. The file is: "Casulaties of the Lincoln Militia, 1812-14". Alan's research, if published, shall likely contain the best list to date of the former Butler's Rangers, of which no official muster roll has been found (likely burned during the war).

Pat wrote back, 19 Feb. 1989, with information sent to her by Mr. HOLDEN: "Pvt. Samuel GILETTE was in Capt Henry BUCHNER's Company...The 3rd Regiment was drawn from the Townships of Bertie, Willoughby, Humberstone, Crowland and Wainfleet." The search continues for Pat and she will keep our readers posted.

Help From An Outside Source

I keep advising our readers to submit queries and articles because we never know who is reading and what they can help with. A fellow Ukrainian genealogist, Sonia van HEERDEN of Toronto, Ontario, suprised me during this past December, with an offer to help our readers:

"I have just been reading through Vol 1 #4, Nov 1988 edition of The Skinner Kinsmen (III) and decided I should write to you about the information I have on Skinners. I enclose some sheets of a printing of the researching of gravestones at the Don Mills United Church cemetery I have placed in my computer...I have also been helping with the transcription of the Necropolis, one of the oldest of Toronto cemeteries, where you will find William Lyon MACKENZIE and other notables of the 1837 Rebellion, and came across a SKINNER there overlooking the Don River and overlooking the old SKINNER homes at Todmorden Mills (which is in East York, my home borough), but did not think to obtain a copy for you. Perhaps next spring when we go back to the transcriptions...."

Sonia: please do make another trip -- it may be Timothy (5) who we can't find a burial place for!

The following is extracted from Sonia's submission on the Don Mills United Church, 126 O'Connor Drive, Toronto, Ontario. The cemetery was recorded April 1966. Established 1822-1958; graves moved to a common grave, but stones retained. Locale of Burial and Church records unknown.

SKINNER: Colin - 1841, 49 yrs.
SKINNER: Mary - 1841, 72 yrs.
SKINNER: James - 1852, 60 yrs.

Sonia also included the index of The Taylor Cemetery, which she says some of the stones from Don Mills may have been placed at. The Taylor Family Cemetery was recorded 1966 and 1973. You may wish to contact: Sonia VAN HEERDEN, 280 Floyd Ave., Toronto, Ont. M4J 2J3. Send SAE & long envelope (SAEs from Canada now 44¢ please). THE SEARCH FOR DANIEL ( ) SKINNER (1758-1820) WHO MARRIED HANNAH (6) OF JOHN (1)

Another new member, James MACNAIR of Stormville, New York, was able to find some information on his lineage from Natalie Fernald's, The Skinner Kinsmen: The Descendants of John Skinner Of Hartford, Connecticut, (Washington, D.C.: The Pioneer Press, ca 1915) p.63,64, re the children of Joseph Skinner (4), John (3), Joseph (2), John (1).

James has new information and is still searching for the identity of Daniel ( ) SKINNER, husband of Hannah (6). Here is his query:

SKINNER Hannah CHURCH SKINNER, dau of William and Elizabeth (CHURCH) SKINNER, b. 24 Apr 1773, Colchester, New London Co., Conn.
CHURCH Hannah DAY SKINNER, dau of Joseph and Ann (DAY) SKINNER, b. 24 Jan 1776, also at Colchester. Since William and Joseph were
DAY brothers, the two Hannahs were cousins. One of the Hannahs married Daniel SKINNER ( ), parents unknown, who was also supposed to be a cousin (of some type), probably about 1798, since the first child was born in 1799. Daniel & Hannah then removed to Norwich, Chenango Co., N.Y., where she d. 16 Jan 1817. Her tombstone offers contradictory info since it lists her name as Hannah D. SKINNER, but her age as 44 yrs, (closer to Hannah C. SKINNER). Daniel died in Norwich, Nov. 1819. Wanted: Any info about the marr(s) of either Hannah, and/or the parents of Daniel. Write: James D. MACNAIR, R.R.#2, Box 609, Christine Court, Stormville, N.Y. 12582.

In the meantime, James has been kind enough to share his genealogy with our readers by the following excellent article which traces up to his grandmother, Winifred SKINNER-HARDENBURG (1892-1988). His story starts from Joseph SKINNER (5) in Fernald's book (as #158), listed for us as Joseph(1).

1. Joseph SKINNER was born in March 1741 and his wife was born November 7, 1742 (daughter of Isaac DAY and his wife Anna FOOTE). They were married on September 30, 1762. Anne DAY SKINNER died on June 3, 1815, age 73. Joseph SKINNER's will was dated April 21, 1830 and probated in Hebron on November 13, 1830 (Probate Court #2246). Joseph SKINNER served in the Revolutionary War, enlisting in E. Windsor for July and August 1776 (Document Vol. 11A; 7A Gen. Index Vital Records as found in Colchester Vol 2 page 8).

Joseph SKINNER and his wife Anne DAY had 13 children, born in Hebron, Connecticut as follows:

2.	Anne	b.07 Oct 1763	m.Reuben TAYLOR, 1785
3.	Isaac	07 Dec 1764	Mary SEXON

DANIEL & HANNAH

11. Daniel SKINNER ( ) was born on May 29, 1758. He married Hannah SKINNER (6), supposedly his cousin (of some form), daughter of Joseph (5) and his wife Anne DAY. Hannah was born 24 January 1776, in Hebron, Connecticut.

Daniel and Hannah moved to Norwich, Chenango County, New York, where they owned a large farm about a mile north of the village. When they came to Norwich, they had the reputation of being the handsomest couple in Chenango County and were regarded as a social acquistion and held in high esteem. They became prosperous and reared a large family (there is some dispute about whether they had nine or then children). Hannah died on January 10, 1817, age 44, shortly after the birth of her last child. She is buried in Norwich, New York, where her tombstone reads:

"Hanna D. SKINNER, wife of Daniel D. SKINNER, Jan 10, 1817, age 44, A tender mother and a virtuous wife, A noble pattern of unsullied life."

Next to Hannah is another stone with no marking, which might be Daniel.

After the death of Hannah, Daniel married again, to a widow with many (supposedly 12) children, probably Abigail GREEN of Smithville, New York. He died shortly thereafter. The exact date of his death is unknown, but is must have been prior to December 20, 1820, since a notice of a Sheriff's sale of his farm was issued on that date.

Daniel and Hannah SKINNER had the following children, all born in Norwich, New York:

12.	Chester	b.14 Jan 1799 d.04 Jan 1833,	m.Betsey GOODRICH of Norwich Marquette, Kansas

HOW THE SKINNERS CAME TO PORTLAND

Daniel [11] and Harriet* SKINNER were a prosperous farming couple living in Norwich, Chenango County, New York. Shortly after the birth of their last child, Albert [20] Hannah SKINNER died, on January, 1818.*

*as written

Daniel remarried, possibly Abigail GREEN, a widow with (supposedly 12) children, seemingly as a result, the two oldest SKINNER boys Chester [12] and Alfred [13] decided to strike out on their own. Taking an axe on his shoulder and the rest of his goods in a roll under his arm, Chester and Alfred set out on foot through the wilderness. They arrived in Portland, at their Uncle Reuben TAYLOR's house, on March 14, 1819.

Chester came to Portland because his Aunt and Uncle, Anna SKINNER-TAYLOR and her husband Reuben, had moved to Portland in 1815. Reuban and Anna's sons had come to Portland earlier, first Erastus, in the winter of 1808, followed by his brother Pearson the next year. Reuben TAYLOR had built a log cabin on the site now occupied by Winnie's home.

Chester and Alfred bought land and built a log cabin to live in. The next winter, hearing of his father's death, Chester went back to Norwich. Although his parents were supposed to have been wealthy, Chester found that there was no inheritence for him or his siblings, and his step mother was not interested in caring for the remaining SKINNER children, with the exception of Roxanne, who was adopted by the JOHNSON family and remained in Norwich. In any case, resolving to care for and raise his brother and sisters himself, Chester bought a yoke of oxen and made a rude sled with his own hands. Loading what few possessions he was allowed to take unto the sled, along with the needed provisions and the younger children who were unable to walk, he bid his old home a tearful goodbye and started out for his new home in Portland.

For 21 days, in the dead of winter, the small band plodded through snow and mud, crossing Buffalo Creek on the ice, and picked their way through the dense forests of Erie and Chautaugua counties. On February 21st, as the sun was setting, they neared their destination. Two of the boys were sent ahead to announce their coming. Thus it happened that day when the tired homeseekers had reached Lamberton Hill, about one mile east of the Portland town line, they were suprised to see their cousin, Pearson TAYLOR, and a span of horses, dash up in front of the slow moving oxen and put the fresh horses in their place. Thus, they were able to reach Pearson TAYLOR's home before sunset.

After the arrival of the family in Portland, Harriet SKINNER worked for Pearson's wife, Phebe TAYLOR, and her sisters found temporary homes with other friendly neighbors.

The next winter, Chester returned to Norwich, where he was married to Betsy GOODRICH on January 8, 1821. Once again he made the journey to Portland, arriving in February, 1821.

Chester and his brothers, along with the TAYLORs, BURTONs, MARTINs, FAYs and others of the first settlers subdued the forests, built schools and churches and prepared the beautiful land of Portland for the homes their chidlren and grandchildren were to enjoy later. When his brothers and sisters were old enough to provide for themselves, Chester sent to Norwich for his wife's aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. GOODRICH, who shared his hospitality, his home and all he could provide so long as they lived.

Dear Skinner relative, friend, and researcher,

Thank you for the family sheets and the printed information. I am afraid you have gone further back on the SKINNER family than I have been able to do. I did research in Darlington, SC twice, Columbia and Raleigh several times, and Henry Co., Alabama once.

I have the SKINNER and related names records found in your material, but I was unable to prove anything to my satisfaction. I was told the Skinners came to Darlington Co., S C after 1800 from Lenoir Co., NC. I found Nathan SKINNER's will in Henry Co., Al. named a son, James. That may have been grandson. After Nathan's decease, the heirs sold the land, and Caraway Oates was the first name on that list. In Caraway's estate records in Polk County, TX an Isaiah SKINNER owed Caraway Oates money. In 1800 Nathan Skinner had four girls and wife. Yes, I believe Easter in Darlington, SC was Nathan's wife, but proof I have not. Dorcas married a Mozingo, Sarah married Wm. Wheeden, another daughter married John Grantham, and Catharine married Caraway Oates.

I have tried to hire John SKINNER of Columbia, S C to do research for me, but he would not accept my money order. Our first meeting was rather strained. That is another story. He probably has collected more SKINNER information than anyone with whom I have exchanged material. A close friend of his told me, "John was very knowledgeable. The secret is getting the information out of him." I was never given any help by him.

I, too, would appreciate receiving any information and will gladly pay postage and copying charges.

I need to make an explanation for the type of letter I am writing. January 14th of this year my 86 year old Mother came to live with us. We cleared the master bedroom, dressing room, and bathroom and moved her furniture to make her move as pleasant as could be. Consequently, I had to move my filing cabinets, many of my books, etc. to the garage. We stored furniture. I have exhausted storage space. At times, I feel we are quite crowded keeping as much as I could inside the house. Our covered patio has things stored along the inside wall. I don't know what will become of all my material and books if I get to the place that I cannot continue. I need to publish what I have gathered, and yet I don't care to publish incorrect information.

Now, my excuse for the more than a month delay in answering your kind letter. We had our first FLOWERS reunion Oct. 1, in Decatur, TX. Many of my cousins I had not seen since 1936. I had done a limited amount of research on the FLOWERS after I completed my lines for DAR, Colonial Dames, DRT, Descendants of Austin's Old Three Hundred, French Huguenots of Manikintown in ye Colony of Virginia. No, I'm not a joiner, but I wanted to verify my research by putting it to the test of its being accepted. Anyway, I was busily endeavoring to get out handouts for those attending. Also, for those who answered my letters and filled out family sheets, I made pedigree charts to give the individuals. Yes, I spent a great deal of time for which they were appreciative.

I take art two mornings a week, my one creative effort since I retired. I have been encouraged by my physicians to continue this outlet. I had major vertebra surgery in December 1985 and February 1987 without success. Being in constant pain makes for an urgency in everything that I have undertaken. I tell you this not for sympathy. Your prayers and forbearance will suffice.

Let's keep in touch, please. Don't forget me and my needs.

Happy hunting,

Dear Louise, I usually answer sooner than this; however, I had major surgery 17 February 1987 which was the second in fourteen months. I have not had a pain free day since. I have just recently gone back to the computer and my records. Yes, we can work together. I am always willing to share. I do not have my SKINNER material typed as yet.

I don't know where my Skinner line goes back of Darlington, SC. I feel confident that they came from Moore County with Carraway and Oates in 1805. My Oates were in Samoson Co, NC before moving on. The 1850 census Darlington Skinners indicate they were born in S C. Lemuel Skinner was 65 years and b SC. Wm Mozingo was 75 born in NC. John Grantham was 55 and born in NC. Dowling, Parrish, Wheddon are other family names that I think about from the top of my head.

I did get everything that I could find in Darlington Courthouse, South Caroliniana Library and Columbia Archives. Wish I had all the wills transcribed so that I could get the things to you readily.

Benjamin Skinner, a blacksmith, had quite an estate when he died. He had given Lemmuel, (presumably the oldest son) much before he died and quite a lot at the probating of will. I do not know who my Nathan Skinner's father is. I had supposed his wife was Easter, but no proof. I do have proof that Nathan Skinner is the father of my Catharine Skinner Oates who went to Henry Co., Al and on to TExas in 1857. Nathan's son Isaac came to Polk Co., TX also.

Let me run down some of the rough notes that I pulled from the file. Jacob Kelly and wife (Jean) to Benjamin Skinner, 21 March 1806, 400 acres for $800.00. Witnesses were Edward and William Skinner. Same day Jacob Kelly sold 100 acres for $200.00 and witnessed by Wm Skiner and Benjamin Skinner. Edward Skinner & wife Anna to Lott Segar 22 July 1806, for thirty pounds sold 100 acres by agreed lines of Benjamin Skinner, Valron Skinner and Jonathan Cotton. Benja. Skinner and John Skinner witnesed. Edward and wife Anna (signed with a B mark) to Jonathan Cotton on 3 Apr. 1806, 50 ac. Witnessed by Wm. Skinner and Wm. Mozingo. on 12 Mar 1808 Fadius Brown and wife Margaret to Benja. Skinner, Jr. 100 ac. part of 642 acs. granted to Isaac DuBose and wife Sarah 5 Dec 1785. Witnesses Drury Aldridge and John Skinner. 1 Feb 1786 Isaac DuBose Senr. of SC and County of Craven deeded Benjamin Skinner 200 acs. Then, Benjamin Skinner deeded Priscilla Skinner 10 Nov 1795 and to Fadias Brown Senr. Moses Walters Sikon Keen and Edward Skinner were witnesses. Edward and Wm Skinner witnessed another deed from Benjamin and Elender Skinner 17 May 1807. Then 12 Feb 1811 Frederic Skinner and William Mozingo for $95.00 (sd Frederk Skinner was fully satisfied...to William Mozingo 50 acres. Must have been kin. George Mozingo and James Skinner witnessed this. Nancy and Lemuel Skinner applied for admrs of Edward Skinner, deceased 8 Feby 1821. Property to Elisha Skinner by Edward Skinner his father 20 Feby 1821

State of VA. Grayson County. On 17 May 1824 , Benjamin Skiner, aged 64 yrs in said co. declared he served in revolutionary war. On and on my notes go. I have notes which my husband made as well as my own notes. I have large documents stored in a dress sized box.

Now, I've probably just confused you more. I did not research in Dallas Co., Al. I've been to Henry, Lawrence, Marion, and Perry. I had an Oates researcher who thought my Pheribay Carraway Oates died down in Autauga in home of sons or daughters. I have been told the Skinners came to Darlington, SC around 1785-90 from Lenoir Co, NC. Another problem, it seemed the Skinner men often married more than once and oftentimes to a woman younger than some of their daughters.

Here goes with suppositions: Benjamin Skinner, Sr. b bef 1755, probably in NC, died last of June or first of July in 1828 Darlington. His wives: 1) Priscilla d 1816-25. 2) Mary died around Aug 1836. I don't know if I have the will or not. Children: Benjamin Jr m Elenor; Nathan probably Easter or Esther; Edward m 1) Anna and 2) Nancy; Jesse m ? Sarah; Susan m Briton Belk; Mary m George Mozingo; Wm. m Sarah; Lemuel m Nicey Belk; John; Frederick m 1) Nancy, 2) Rebacca Clayton and James m 1) Laney Pasrrott 2) Jane Ann Belk. Will of Benjamin Skinner, Sr. of Darlington DST, SC June 25, 1828. Wife Mary, dtr Susan Belk, Son Jesse, dtr-in-law Nancy, dtr Mary Mozingo, dtr Elenor Skinner, dtr-in-law Easter, son William, son John, son Lemuel, son Frederick and son James. Sons Lemuell and James executors. Wit. by Edwin James, Thomas Kea, Elener Kea.

Will of Mary Skinner, Darl. Co., SC Probate Roll 667, d Aug 1836. Citation of her estate read at Sardis Church (not far from Elim Neighborhood of Sutton Skinner. Will mertions my two children, Anna Andrews and Martha Andrews and two grandchildren Molcey Mancill and Martha Mancill. Admrs. were John and James Andrews. Priscilla was still alive in 1816. Do you know John Andrews of Hartsville, S C. We have exchanged material on Oates, Mozingo, and DuBose.

Louise, please don't circulate this. I would be ashamed for these to get out over my signature. I do promise as soon as

Dear Mrs. Edwards,

You probably do not remember who I am, but I wrote you back last summer concerning records of Wayne/Greene Cos. MS in hopes of your knowing something about my ancestor Benjamin Scarborough.

I am writing this time because of one of your family names on your card you enclosed with your letter--SKINNER in South Carolina and Mississippi. I have a Skinner line which has proved elusive. I will list what I know below. If you see any possible connection, would you let me know? Also, if you know of anyone who may be able to help me, would you please let me know?

Caroline Frances Skinner was born about 1834 in Alabama, we think. She gave Mississippi as her birthplace in 1850, but Ala in 1860 and 1880(was missed on 1870 census). We have wondered if perhaps Mississippi was the most recent place at which she lived and Alabama was her true birthplace. She was married about 1849, location unknown, to Abraham J. Youngblood, and they were living next to Abraham's parents in Union Parish LA in 1850, which is where they remained for the rest of their lives. We have absolutely no idea who her parents are, even though we have searched the records of south Ark and north La for all Skinners. A brother of Abraham Youngblood's married a Skinner, the daughter of Archibald Skinner. Archibald was living in Union Parish in 1850, but later moved to Newton Co TX, where he died. He was from South Carolina, though, and was there at the time Caroline Frances was born, while her census records indicate she was born in Ala or Miss. There was also a Morris Skinner living in Union Parish in 1850 who could possible be Caroline's father, but he was probably too young. We seriously wonder if Abraham left north Louisiana to find a wife, perhaps going to Mississippi or Alabama to marry. Carolina and Abraham Youngblood left many descendants. He died in 1887 and she in 1889, both at Pisgah, Union Parish LA.

If you have any record of a Skinner that has a missing daughter named Caroline Frances, please let me know.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Timothy D. Hudson

In the many papers forwarded to me by Dick RUSH, write-up of Zelmon appear as Zalmon Colburn Rush, born Somerset Co., PA., 1833.

In the estate papers of Jesse HYATT and Elizabeth HYATT, both filed in Orphan's Court, 1886, Zelmon (aka Zellmon C.) appears only in the estate of Elizabeth.

Questions remain: 1) is Zelmon the legal son of Elizabeth through a prior marriage to a RUSH? 2) did Elizabeth have an illegimate son? 3) did Elizabeth possibly adopt a nephew Zelmon and thus the reason of the Orphan's Court? 4) if Zelmon was born 1833, how did Elizabeth have four other children in two years? As our readers can see, there are many new facts contributed by Mr. KENT, for which we are grateful. We were able to supply some new information to him in return.

In File #138 "Southern Skinners from Cynthia Rummel" I find much of Doris' material from Cynthia came from a Iris Dee KENT-ECKHARDT: "...I got the information that her father, Jackson Henry Kent was the son of John Kent, who was the son of John Kent, who was born "in Virginia" about 1811-12 and who had married in Alabama after 1830, Judith Skinner, called "Judy" and Julia"..."

What we ask of Phillip is to send proof of lineage of Theophilus(3) to Samuel (2) and William (1) - it's something that is missing in the files I have searched to date. We will advise our readers of this documentation in Volume Three.

On behalf of all our readers, I thank Mr. KENT for his contribution to our newsletter.

LIFE HISTORY OF J. S. SKINNER

By

TILLIS HILL

Nothing is more beautiful than an old man, retired from the busy world, surrounded by loving friends, lingering in the twilight of life like a long summer evening, to be blessed by his own generation and emulated by those who follow. Such a man is J. S. Skinner who was born April 23, 1868, at McLeod, Logan County, Kentucky. He got his public schooling in Kentucky and Alabama, having moved to Alabama at the age of thirteen. It was at Castleberry, Alabama, that he married Miss Mattie A. Braswell in January 1893. God blessed their home by entrusting them with seven sons, namely: Stanford Skinner, Panama; R. S. (Jack) Skinner, Lucedale; Z. B. (Pick) Skinner, Lucedale; T. E. (Tom) Skinner, Birmingham, Ala.; F. Xavier Skinner, Pascagoula; Jimmie Skinner, Birmingham, Ala.; George Skinner, Lucedale (Deceased). Their parental love is manifest by the fact that they made it possible for each of these boys to go to college for three or more years. As a demonstration of his love and affection for his wife, to whom he has been married forty-five years, Mr. Skinner, in his weakened condition, climbed two flights of steps for the purpose of adding to his statements concerning his life: "I attribute all of my happiness and success to the teamwork of the best wife in the world." That makes us know that he is another who pays the greatest tribute that can be paid to woman—'A perfect wife and mother, modest and unassuming'.

It is not as an aspiring politician that the people of George County know Mr. Skinner. He is known best and loved most for his honesty, carefulness, and fairness in his dealings with others. He himself states, "I believe in being honest and fair with my fellowman." Mr. Skinner has the reputation of being one of the most public-spirited citizens in George County. Many of his fine, charitable acts are not known by the general public, but it is a well known fact that he has a world of friends and admirers.

Mr. Skinner was a lumberman by trade. For more than thirty years of his forty-five years as a resident of Mississippi he owned and operated as many as four sawmills in this vicinity along the G. M. & N. railroad. He might well be called a pioneer lumberman of southeast Mississippi, retiring only twelve years ago. As a lumberman he operated his business on a safe, sane and highly ethical basis.

Whatever else may be said of Mr. Skinner, he is a splendid example of the "self-made man". Let us be proud of this pioneer who is approaching his seventieth birthday. As we see him today quietly spending the evening of his life in the town of Lucedale, we see an active member of the Methodist church and a friend who will long be remembered in the hearts of all who know him.

Mittie Theo Savell Skinner was born January 30, 1894 to John Carol Savell and Elizabeth Roseanna Smith Savell in Neshoba County, Mississippi. She was number ten of a family of thirteen. At the age of 16 she married Louis Madison Skinner on September 21, 1910.

Louis was a farmer and Justice of the Peace and a schoolteacher at the Jewel and Clay schools. Seven children were born of this marriage. The seven were Theo Skinner Petty, Odessa Skinner Lemon, L. M. Skinner, James Madison Skinner, Clarence Skinner, Raymond Skinner and Rudolph Skinner.

Mittie's husband Louis passed away April 24, 1934. She continued to live on the family farm with the oldest child being 20 and the youngest child being 7.

With the help of the older children she managed to keep the farm and still lived on the farm along with her oldest son L.M. Skinner and daughter Theo until just a few years ago.

February 12, 1991 her son, James Madison, died with lung cancer. The other six children are still living. There are numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

After suffering from a second broken hip, Mama Skinner went to live with daughter, Odessa and son, Clarence, in Pascagoula, MS. These two children are still caring for her.

"Mama Skinner" as children and grandchildren so dearly know her, had a garden every year with all the vegetables anyone would possibly want. While others were using Merry Tillers, she was using a push plow powered by her own strength to till her garden.

Working daily in her flower garden was one of her favorite past times. Every grandchild was always permitted to pick the flower of his or her choice, no matter which flower it was. She never denied a child a flower (or anyone else either). For many years she had laying hens and sold eggs for extra money. There is nothing lazy about Mittie Skinner. Possibly this is what has given her such a long life.

Mama Skinner has passed down a heritage of love of God and loving devotion to the memory of her precious husband, Louis.

She is a member of Enon Baptist Church in Neshoba County and the cemetery across the road is where her husband is buried. She has spent many, many hours tending his grave by planting flowers and cleaning it from grass.

Mama Skinner was often mistaken to be younger than her daughters because of her beautiful complexion. She has always worn a bonnet and a collar of ice around her neck in the summer time to prevent the sun from leathering her skin. Long sleeves always protected her arms and hands. When it rained Mama Skinner always thought of something that she had to get outside and was in almost all the rains gathering clothes, chickens, or putting out buckets to catch the rain water.

Mama Skinner has lived through 19 presidents starting with Grover J. Cleveland and through Bill Clinton. As of January 1, 2000, she has lived in three different centuries.

Mama Skinner saw the first train come through Union, the first telephone in Neshoba County and the first automobile drive through.

Mama Skinner does not get to return to Neshoba County because of health, but is well taken care of by daughter Odessa and son, Clarence Rudolph, L.M., Theo and Raymond, who all now live in Union, visit her as often as they can.

On January 30, 2000 Mama Skinner will celebrate her 106th birthday.
